

21 Buchanan St, Kandos

A PIECE OF KANDOS HISTORY

Originally built for Dr Darton in 1928 for his surgery and residence, this solid double brick home was built to the high standards of the era. This large family home is sure to please all the family with its many varied features.

Set high on an elevated block with expansive views over the township of Kandos and offering 5 bedrooms, the main with ensuite and walk-in-robe with dressing room, plus there's a large storeroom or study area off one of the bedrooms and ceiling fans throughout.

A large living room with a cosy wood fire and split system air-conditioning for all year round comfort. The kitchen, dining and sunroom provides loads of natural light, taking advantage of the spectacular views on offer.

Car accommodation is by way of a double carport with internal access and a separate workshop under the home.

The spacious yard will keep the children happy and the large in-ground salt water pool is surely a bonus at this price.
